

The WOW! Forum

The annual WOW! Forum is a day-long event of nationally recognized speakers who educate and motivate the hundreds of women who attend the region's largest professional development conference.

Since its inception, twelve years ago, the event continues to flourish and inspire attendees both professionally and personally. The WOW! Forum Committee now awards five scholarships annually to women who may otherwise not have the financial means of attending the event.

“Every woman, especially those looking for inspiration in their lives, should attend the Forum at least once.”

Past WOW! Scholarship Recipient

“The WOW Forum was a day that was incredibly empowering from start to finish”
